At Good Shepherd Child Care Center we like to capture the events of the day to share with the parents. We take photos as a part of our instructional program as well as to share with our families. We need your permission to photograph your child to be used in center displays as well as to be posted on the center's website.

By signing below you give the staff of Good Shepherd permission to photograph your child and use the photos in center displays as well as any brochures, advertisements and also on the center's website. Names and identities will never be shared on the website.
