Making space for faith

From the Pastor's Pen

Where Are We in the Interim Period?

"So when are we going to get a new pastor?" That's a question that bubbles around during every interim period in every church, and Good Shepherd is no exception. The chart below outlines the major steps in the process—the next one for us is the Mission Study, which we will most likely get started in October. The purpose of this Study is for all of us to take a step back and figure out who we've been, who we are, and who we think God is calling us to be—so that we can determine what gifts and skills will be needed in the next pastor.

Interim Pastor Begins I was called by the Interim Pastor Nominating Committee on April 26, was approved by Session on May 25, and began on June 8.

Church Conducts Mission Study and Writes Report Our Mission Study will provide opportunities for everyone in the church to participate. Part of the Mission Study will include an assessment of the church's finances.

Congregation Elects Pastor Nominating Committee (PNC) This cannot be done until the Mission Study is complete (probably early 2018), though the church's Nominating Committee may start thinking about nominees to serve on the PNC before then.

PNC Writes Ministry Information Form (MIF) The MIF is the job description for pastor of Good Shepherd. It needs to present the church both honestly and compellingly.

Session and Presbytery (Committee on Ministry—COM) approve MIF We turn to our partners to help make sure the MIF is the best it can be.

MIF Is Added to the Church Leadership Connection (online) The Presbyterian system of matching candidates to churches is a lot like internet dating. Once our MIF is up on the system, we will automatically be matched to some candidates, and others will find us and self-refer.

PNC Reviews, Interviews, Reference Checks Potential Candidates This usually takes several months—sometimes even a year or more.

PNC Chooses a Pastoral Candidate This is the result of much prayer and attention to the Holy Spirit.

COM Approves Candidate The presbytery does the final reference checking and questioning of the candidate.

Candidate Meets and Preaches for Congregation/Congregation Votes to Call We all say, "Thanks be to God!" After the vote, it usually takes a few weeks for the new pastor to finish up at her or his current position and move to the Joppa area. During this time, the congregation will be bringing the interim period to a close and getting ready for the new pastor.

If you have questions or concerns about any of this, please let me know.

Blessings, Jeanne

What's Been Happening This Summer?

Summer may seem like "low season" in a church's life, but we've actually accomplished a lot thus far.

The Nominating Committee found candidates for all the seats on both Session and the Board of Deacons. Those folks have been elected by the congregation, will be ordained and installed on Sept. 10, and will begin their work right away.

We've started "culling the rolls." (See article below)

The new playground has been completed and is being enjoyed by the children in our childcare center almost every day. (Thank you, Jim, Gary, Wayne, Mike, and Mike!) Next up: the parking lot.

Farrell and I have done the initial planning for worship through the end of November.

I've spent a lot of time getting ready for a new year of Session, including new elders, new committee responsibilities, and new ways of doing things.

The same is true for the Board of Deacons, as we imagine how best to live up to what the Book of Order calls a ministry of "compassion, witness, and service, sharing in the redeeming love of Jesus Christ for the poor, the hungry, the sick, the lost, the friendless, the oppressed, those burdened by unjust policies or structures, or anyone in distress." (G-2.0201)

The staff has been working on entering into an agreement with a technology support company to make sure we can depend on our computers, projectors, and printer/copier.

We've enjoyed wonderful guest musicians and terrific worship all summer, including an outstanding outdoor worship and picnic on August 13 and a "guest" preacher, Bob Barr, on August 27.

At the request of the Women's Group, I've begun to plan a Women's Retreat, to be held on Saturday, Nov. 4, titled Feeding Our Hungers: Beyond Wine and Chocolate. (Save the date—more information coming soon!)

I've met with all of the current elders, and some others in the congregation, to get to know them and their dreams for the church.

And lots more stuff behind the scenes!

Culling the Rolls

Every Presbyterian church keeps a "roll" of its members and submits those numbers each year to the larger church (presbytery and General Assembly). Membership numbers are used to determine the amount the church will pay in "per capita" fees and, in this presbytery, the salary range for the pastor.

Good Shepherd's rolls have not been examined in a number of years, and it's pretty clear that there are a lot of people on that list who have not attended or supported the church in, well, a long time. In some cases, over 10 years.

A group of people, headed by Dorothy Burns, have been going through our rolls to determine which people are actually active members of the congregation. The plan is to send letters to people who have neither attended nor supported the church in more than two years, asking them if they would like to remain on the rolls and inviting them back into active membership.

There are several reasons it's important for a church to have accurate rolls:

Financial Savings

- ⇒ We pay a yearly per capita fee (a way of supporting the presbytery and General Assembly) for each person on our rolls. That fee has been a bit over $30 the last few years. We've estimated that reducing our official membership number will save us over $3,000 a year.
- ⇒ The salary range for a pastor depends to a great extent on the size of the congregation. Culling the rolls now means that the salary of the incoming pastor will be more in line with what the existing congregation can afford.

Appearance to Candidates

- ⇒ Pastoral candidates look at the size of the congregation in comparison to the church's average worship attendance. If a church claims 250 members but sees an average of 65 in worship, the candidate is going to wonder why so many people aren't attending. An average worship attendance of 65 looks much healthier in a church of 100 members!
- ⇒ Candidates also look at the church's average giving per member, to see where it ranks in comparison with the giving of Presbyterians across the country. I have to tell you that I was quite concerned, when I started here, to see statistics showing that Good Shepherd's average giving was only half of the national average. I soon learned that the statistics show that because, on the official rolls, the church has far more members than is actually true.

Knowing Who We Really Are

- ⇒ Coming to terms with the real size of the church is also important when it comes to knowing who we really are. As Good Shepherd prepares to look for a new pastor, we need to be able to recognize and claim our values, our strengths and weaknesses, our history ... and our numbers.

Deacons

A BIG THANK YOU to everyone who helped make Christmas in July a great success. Your donations were greatly appreciated and delivered to Harford Family House.

Thank you to all who helped with our Annual Picnic. It was a successful and fun day. We had a wonderful service, beautiful music, excellent weather and an abundance of food. As always any feedback is appreciated. Let us know what you liked or didn't like. Your ideas are always welcomed!

The deacons will be meeting September 6th, at 6:45pm. We are excited to welcome our new deacons and welcome back the "recharged" current members.

COFFEE HOUR—Pot luck Sunday is September 3rd. Remember to bring a covered dish.

We also need people to sign up for coffee hour. We would like to see some new names on the list. Everyone is encouraged to take a turn. Partner up with one or more people. Make it a light fare...Coffee and doughnuts, hey now there's an idea! If we wish to continue this social time we need a few more hands. You will find the sign up sheet in the Narthex. THANK YOU!

FOOD PANTRY—offering of non-perishable food, personal hygiene, or paper products, such as tp or paper towels.

Shepherd's Kids

Time for Shepherd's Kids!

What a joy it is to meet with our children on the second and third Wednesday of each month, as we share the joys of being a family in Christ. If you have never been a part of this ministry, we invite you to join us. We begin at 5:30 with dinner. We gather in groups, with an adult at each table. We always start by giving thanks for the blessings we share. After dinner we break into groups and enjoy stories, art activities, and music. We are always looking for new ideas to teach and entertain our children.

Our first meeting will be September 13, 2017. We look forward to sharing this joy and ministry with all who would care to join us.

Women's Association

Our new year is starting with a new Bible Study and new program offerings!

ALL women of Good Shepherd are automatically members of the Good Shepherd Women's Association and we invite you to attend any or all of our upcoming events.

Our first Bible Study will be on Thursday, September 14 at 10:00. See the separate Yarn announcement which explains all about this event. Bring a lunch for our after-study fellowship.

On September 28 at 10:00 we will have our first 4th Thursday Program.

Jeana Talbot, Director of GSPC Child Care Center will have a discussion on the "Community" of the Center including children, teachers, and parents' relationships. She will give us a tour and explain some of the daily happenings at the Center. She will also present some current needs to which we could contribute.

A big THANK YOU to the congregation for the many backpacks that were donated to Riverside Elementary!!!

The First Sunday Food Pantry donation drive has also been quite successful! It has drawn our attention to the needs of our community and of how many use this needed mission of our church. Again, THANKS YOU!!

Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church
Is Collecting Money for Victims of Hurricane Harvey

We will be sending the donations to Presbyterian Disaster Assistance (PDA), which already has an infrastructure and teams in place, and has an excellent record of getting the money to the people who need it. If you would like to contribute, you can do so in any of these ways:

Give through Good Shepherd Church, with either cash (in an envelope marked Hurricane Harvey)
or check (made out to Good Shepherd
Presbyterian and noted as a Hurricane Harvey donation).

Donate $10 by texting "PDA" to 20222. You'll be asked to confirm with "YES" for a donation to the Presbyterian Church (USA). Give online at

Cloud of Witnesses: The Community of Christ in Hebrews

OVERVIEW OF THE STUDY: (From the author, Melissa Bane Sevier) The Letter to the Hebrews is a significant book of the Bible, and is also significantly different from every other book in the Bible. It consists of thirteen chapters, all of which are packed with theology, metaphor, comparisons and spirituality. Our study will focus on nine major themes with an overarching motif of community, those groups in which we study and worship, our family and friends, social and therapy groups that all are a part of us...our Cloud of Witnesses. Begin thinking about those people who have sustained you in your life and faith.

BIBLE STUDY-LESSON 1 – In Community with Jesus Christ

SCRIPTURE: Hebrews 1:1-4; 4:14-5:6; 7:26-28; Genesis 14:18-20

MAIN IDEA: Jesus, the Christ, is the basis of all of our faith and action, individually and as a faith community.
