THANKSGIVING GIVING BOXES

“All great changes are preceded by chaos.”
~ Deepak Chopra

We don't mean to rock anyone's world right now but those responsible for organizing the annual Thanksgiving Box Program thought it best to provide food for those in need in a new, less hands-on way. If you were wondering about how this program could be done this year, given the pandemic and so many food pantries suspending their operation for health reasons, here is a preview of what is to come:

Our Food Pantry has not been visited a great deal over the last eight months. We are told that many smaller pantries are experiencing the same phenomenon. There are still people in the area who experience food scarcity, but Good Shepherd is not working with them directly.

Because the handling of food and collection of it could present issues for volunteers and church members, we will not be collecting food items, as we have done in the past.

We are accepting separate checks (made out to Good Shepherd) alongside your normal Sunday giving. Please make checks out to Good Shepherd, with “GIVING BOX” written on the memo line. This way members may make contributions to the Thanksgiving Box project instead of bringing food to our building.

Good Shepherd will send a check to Christ Our King (this is completely voluntary) to cover the cost of thirteen turkeys accompanied by the same number of large boxes containing such things as stuffing, gravy, vegetables, pasta sauce, cranberries, etc. These items are delivered to Good Shepherd on the Monday before Thanksgiving Day via a delivery truck.

Good Shepherd has a solid history of providing food items to supplement these special boxes. As you may recall, we collected quite a lot of “extra” items to make someone's Thanksgiving celebration very special. Instead, this year we will purchase Redner's Gift Cards based on the amount of money we receive from our congregation's generous donations.

We plan to distribute the turkeys, food boxes from Christ Our King, and hand-made cards provided by our Pre-School children with a gift card inside for each needy person who has signed up previously for their Thanksgiving Box.

Yes, we may be experiencing a little chaos in our lives right now. And we regret not collecting lots of food for others. But, based on the current health situation, we feel this change is needed at this moment in time. We know you will understand and, when the time comes, you will give generously to this program. We will re-visit this wonderful project next year when we know we will have moved on and will have overcome the pandemic. Please open your hearts and minds to this change for this year. Thank you, from your Good Shepherd Deacons!

A MESSAGE FROM JANELLE

It is with heavy heart that I let the GSPC congregation know that I am moving on to a new opportunity the summer of 2021.

I will be leaving GSCC and heading to Harford Day School to be the Director of Auxiliary Enterprise. I hope to remain in place for a year or two as a consultant to help the program get accreditation and achieve a Level 5 in EXCELS. This was always my goal from the program and I hope to be able to complete that goal.

I am already at HDS part time, but I am training Jamie Williams, current infant room teacher (and a former teacher of mine from Friends School) to be my replacement. I am confident that Jamie will do an excellent job in this role. We are fortunate to have until the end of June to train.

PLEASE WELCOME JAMIE WILLIAMS!

Jamie Williams lives and breathes childcare. After earning her bachelor's degree in Child Development and Family Studies from West Virginia University in 2010 and advancing steadily throughout her career, she is ecstatic to be bringing her 10+ years of childcare experience to Good Shepherd Children's Center.

Jamie emphasizes child-centered learning through play in her classrooms and has most recently been studying the RIE philosophy of learning, set forth by Magda Gerber. Jamie and her husband Joey have a son, Jack (2020), who was one of the first and youngest babies in the new infant

HALLOWEEN AT GOOD SHEPHERD

A MESSAGE FROM OUR WORSHIP COMMITTEE

A Worship Committee was formed two years ago to work with Interim Pastor Jeanne Gay and then with Pastor Keith Roberts to help with various worship tasks on a weekly basis. Some of the things we have been doing behind the scenes are: enhancing the worship space with seasonal decorations and symbols; preparing Communion elements; obtaining ushers and worship participants; resourcing special worship elements (such as liturgical readings, special children’s worship service last October, ecumenical Thanksgiving and Fourth of July Worship service, and Advent, Christmas Eve, and Holy Week services). We have worked together well and have put time and energy into involving many Good Shepherd people in the worship life of our church.

We are grateful for your support during a very challenging time for Good Shepherd. It has been a blessing to see so many people reading and participating in these services now that we have gone “virtual.” Our congregation has stepped up when asked to bring their special gift to the weekly service. We want to be sure everyone is included in offering a gift for the good of all. If you would like to be called upon to read or prepare a part of the worship experience, please contact one of us and we will be glad to include you in a future service.

To be sure, Maxfield Henkel, our interim music director, and Trista Canary, our administrative assistant, have answered the call to make it possible for us to stay virtual and stay connected to each other each week. Listed below is a snapshot of what is planned in the weeks to come. We hope you will bear with us as we finetune our liturgical skills and our technological prowess. Our committee continues to ask many of our members to participate by offering prayers, doing a children’s moment, reading scripture, and bringing a message and although not all names are mentioned below, many people will continue to participate each week.

Date	Theme	Speaker
November 1	All Saints Day	Sue Thompson
November 8	Celebrating Veterans and Their Sacrifices	Allen Wronowski Various Congr'l Members
November 15	Parable of the Talents	Rita Garrity
November 22	Christ Our King Sunday with Communion	Rev.

Advent begins on Sunday, November 29. We are planning now for some exciting projects that our congregation can do at home to bring the “Coming Christ” into our homes and lives for the Advent Season. Worship keeps us connected and provides spiritual support to take us into each week. We value our time together as a congregation and promise to do all we can to make each Sunday special and meaningful. We are grateful to our choir members who bring a message, to our speakers who put so much thought and prayer into their messages, and to Ryan Shuttlesworth and Trista Canary, who are taping and designing our worship presentations. May we bring honor to our Lord and inspire our congregation in the weeks to come.

HARFORD FAMILY HOUSE COSTUME DONATION

Thanks to all who donated Halloween Costumes. We had a nice collection. Mike & Chris Bohns delivered them to Harford Family House on October 23, 2020.

As always they were so appreciative!
